

Advice for Your First Year of Teaching

- Know your curriculum!
- Don't be afraid to ask questions.
- Be open to the advice and ideas suggested by your fellow teachers.
- Discover what works best for you.
- Discover what works best for your students.
- Organization will be key!
- Show that you are committed, but do not burn yourself out.
- Set clear expectations with your students.
- Be prepared for parent-teacher conferences.
- Be real with your students & enjoy your first year because it will be over before you know it!

